About Stan Ingersol

Stan Ingersol has been manager of the Nazarene Archives since 1985. He is a graduate of Bethany Nazarene College, the University of Kansas, Nazarene Theological Seminary, and Duke University, where he earned a Ph.D. degree in the History of American Christianity. He is co-author with Wes Tracy of What is a Nazarene?: Understanding Our Place in the Religious Community (1998) and of Here We Stand: Where Nazarene Fit in the Religious Marketplace (1999). He wrote the "Nazarene Roots" series in the Herald of Holiness from 1985 to 1998. His articles have appeared in Christian Century, Wesleyan Theological Journal, several reference works, and a variety of Nazarene publications.

About the Nazarene Archives

The Nazarene Archives has been part of the Office of the General Secretary since 1932. The Archives forms a vital link in the collective memory of the church by maintaining denominational records. It also collects other historical materials in the form of letters, diaries, reports, sermons, serial publications, microfilm, photographs, audio and video recordings, and other media.

About Clergy Services

Clergy Services has been positioned in the USA/Canada Mission/Evangelism Department of the Church of the Nazarene since 1981. Its chief purpose is to increase participation and effectiveness in a reproductive ministry that is engaged in Christian mission. The first duty in the General Board Bylaws is to "foster a climate in which capable men and women hear and respond to the call of God to full-time Christian service.

It is committed to provide resources, support systems, and developmental programs for all clergy. Consistent with its historical roots, Clergy Services endeavors to be an advocate for women clergy at all levels of the denomination.

Nazarene Women and Religion is a joint publication of Clergy Services and the Nazarene Archives. Questions on the sources and documents contained in this bibliography may be directed to the Nazarene Archives. Contact Clergy Services or the Archives for information on how to obtain additional copies.

FOREWORD

The involvement of women clergy was a defining characteristic of the early Church of the Nazarene. It is my hope that the vision and sacrifice of past female leaders will inspire and motivate Nazarene women to consider the call to full-time ministry. May this booklet be a valued resource to all women in the church, and also to church administrators and theological educators.

I want to express my gratitude for the excellent work that Dr. Stan Ingersol has done on behalf of women clergy in the Church of the Nazarene. We are indebted to him for this particular project.

*W*e sometimes go into the hovels of poverty and wretchedness where there is sickness and distress, and children unkempt and dirty, ministering to them in their temporal needs. We often times break down the barriers and are enabled to reach hearts.

We esteem it a blessed privilege to be workers together with Him who said in His word: "If a brother or sister be naked and destitute of daily food, and one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body: what doth it profit?"

*Our manifold duties become pleasures under the inspiration of the Holy Ghost.
